

LEARN MORE ABOUT THE INTEGRATED ASSESSMENT OF THE

Peace River Nuclear Power Project

PROJECT LOCATION:

Peace River, Alberta

NATURE OF PROJECT:

Nuclear Energy

PROJECT DESCRIPTION:

Energy Alberta, an Alberta-based private sector company, is proposing the construction of two twin CANDU MONARK nuclear reactors, located approximately 30 kilometres north of the Town of Peace River, Alberta.

The Impact Assessment Agency of Canada (IAAC) and the Canadian Nuclear Safety Commission (CNSC) are working together on the integrated assessment.

INFORMATION SESSION DETAILS:

IAAC and the CNSC invite anyone who is interested to attend an in-person English information session to learn more about the IAAC and the integrated assessment process, as well as the CNSC and their role. The sessions will include a presentation and a questions and answers period.

Note: Although these sessions are being held in English, participants are encouraged to speak in either official language of their choice.
